Miami Art Museum Changes Admission Structure

Effective immediately, Miami Art Museum has increased admission for adults and seniors. The admission rate for adults is now $8 and the admission for seniors is now $4. Admission for children under 12 and students with valid ID is still free.

Joint admission to the Miami Art Museum and the Historical Museum of Southern Florida is now $10.

Concurrent with this admission increase, Miami Art Museum has established a group rate of $6 for groups of 6 or more adults and $3 for groups of 6 or more seniors.

MAM's popular Second Saturdays are Free for Families program, presented by MetLife Foundation, will continue to be free. The Sundays are Free program has been discontinued with the exception of the Sunday admission during the reception for the annual Scholastic Art Awards Exhibition.

Operating hours for the museum remain unchanged.
